

Wine Growers British Columbia
Board of Directors Nominee

Small Winery Category

Erin Korpisto, Stag's Hollow Winery

Erin is an Okanagan girl who decided to move back to the valley and pursue her passion for wine in 2009, after spending several years working in architectural design, and travelling, overseas. Erin began in the cellar for a few years, before moving into the Sales and Marketing side of the industry. She shares her extensive knowledge and passion for the wines of BC by teaching wine studies at Okanagan College, and through her work as the General Manager at Stag's Hollow Winery, along with being a champion of BC wines nationally and internationally. Erin is a WSET Diploma candidate and earned a certificate in Wine Business Management from the Wine Business Institute at Sonoma State University.

